Insurance Company Mergers – Why Patients and Consumers Will Not be Better Off

Many Connecticut residents still don't know that by the end of this year, Anthem Insurance Co. and Cigna may merge—forcing us all into a dire situation.

Community Health Workers: Reducing Costs and Disparities

Find out how CHWs help achieve the "triple aim" of improving the care experience and health outcomes while reducing costs and disparities for underserved patients.

Warning: Pharmaceutical Advertising can be Hazardous to Your Health (and Wallet)

Connecticut Congresswoman Rosa DeLauro has introduced a bill called the "Responsibility in Drug Advertising Act," which calls for a three-year moratorium on direct-to-consumer advertising of new medications approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA).

OP-ED | A More Personal Approach to the Healthcare Debate

As an assistant majority leader and vice chairman of the General Assembly's Public Health Committee, I am regularly part of formal and informal discussions about a wide range of issues that impact the daily lives of the residents of our state.

Key Quote:

" [Executive Order 51 will] provide the necessary time for a fair and thorough evaluation of the Certificate Of Need process." – Gov. Dannel Malloy
