

Health Care Headlines

Connecting you to news and advocacy

Insurance Mergers: What You Need To Know

Connecticut Gets No Respect When it Comes to Insurance Job Promises

Community Concerns Over Potential Manchester, Rockville Hospital Sales

Lembo requests open, deep review of Anthem-Cigna merger

Insurance Mergers: What You Need To Know

A forum held in Mansfield covered what the proposed health care mergers will mean for Connecticut consumers.

Connecticut Gets No Respect When it Comes to Insurance Job Promises

With the proposed mega-mergers of Aetna with Humana and Anthem with Cigna, how is the jobs discussion playing out in our state? More importantly, how many insurance jobs will be left in Connecticut if the proposed mergers go through?

Community Concerns Over Potential Manchester, Rockville Hospital Sales

... the state held public hearings on the potential Manchester and Rockville Hospitals sales to out-of-state, for-profit Prospect Medical Holdings. The affected communities had an opportunity to speak out on the proposal—and there were many major concerns voiced by the public.

Lembo requests open, deep review of Anthem-Cigna merger

Comptroller Kevin Lembo said Wednesday he wants to see an open and thorough review of a proposed merger between Anthem and Cigna in order to address significant concerns raised by healthcare consumers and providers.

“It doesn’t make sense having all these therapies developed so only a few privileged people can afford them.”

- State Representative Marjorie Decker, D-Cambridge

CONNECTICUT CAMPAIGN FOR CONSUMER CHOICE